

Sun Fook Kong Organized the Magic Themed Christmas Party

To celebrate the Christmas season, Sun Fook Kong organized a magic themed Christmas party at Langham Place Hotel, Hong Kong on 24 December 2014. Nearly 130 Guangdong and Hong Kong colleagues joined the party and shared a happy moment.

Ms. Rity Tang, Senior Administration Manager of Sun Fook Kong sincerely thanks the senior management for their generous sponsorship of the party.

The Best Dress Award was presented to the most impressive dressed guest.

The party was themed "Magic Christmas" and the Best Dress Award was presented to the most impressive dressed guest. Other than a delicious Christmas lunch buffet, the company had arranged live band and magical performance for all guests to enjoy.

There was also a lucky draw section which all prizes were sponsored by the senior management of the Group. No matter they could win the prize or not, most of them found it exciting and enjoyed to participate in this annual event.

To thank its colleagues for their continuous support, Sun Fook Kong will organize various activities for them to release their pressure from work, as well as to enhance their work morale. In future, the Group will continue to build and maintain a strong business, and to create a sustainable future.

The awarder presented the lucky draw prizes to the winners.

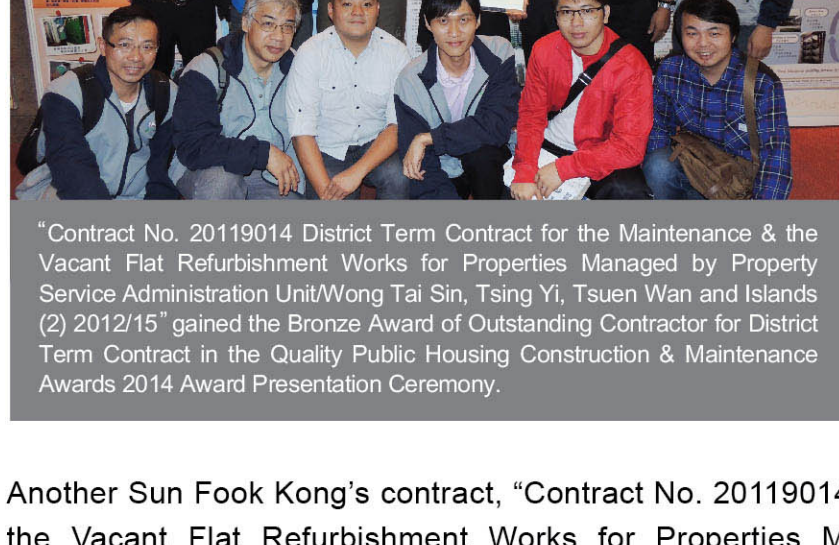

The company had arranged magical performance for all guests to enjoy.

Sun Fook Kong Gains Two Outstanding Contractor Awards from MTRC and Hong Kong Housing Authority

Sun Fook Kong has gained two awards in November, including 2013/2014 Contractor Safety Performance Award of Civil Works Project (Safety Classification 1) from the MTR Corporation and Outstanding Contractor for District Term Contract Bronze Award of the Quality Public Housing Construction & Maintenance Awards 2014 from the Hong Kong Housing Authority.

The project team of "C4680.C-11C Provision of Lift Shafts at LCK, SWH and PRE" received the 2013/2014 Contractor Safety Performance Award of Civil Works Project (Safety Classification 1) from the MTR Corporation.

"Contract No. 20119014 District Term Contract for the Maintenance & the Vacant Flat Refurbishment Works for Properties Managed by Property Service Administration Unit/Wong Tai Sin, Tsing Yi, Tsuen Wan and Islands (2) 2012/15" gained the Bronze Award of Outstanding Contractor for District Term Contract in the Quality Public Housing Construction & Maintenance Awards 2014 Award Presentation Ceremony.

The 2013/2014 Contractor Safety Performance Award was set up by the MTR Corporation to promote a safety culture, to encourage the use of effective management system and to boost the safety performance of its contractors. One of the Sun Fook Kong's contracts, "C4680.C-11C Provision of Lift Shafts at LCK, SWH and PRE" finally gained the Contractor Safety Performance Award of Civil Works Project (Safety Classification 1) for their good teamwork and excellence in site cleanliness and safety performance.

Another Sun Fook Kong's contract, "Contract No. 20119014 District Term Contract for the Maintenance & the Vacant Flat Refurbishment Works for Properties Managed by Property Service Administration Unit/Wong Tai Sin, Tsing Yi, Tsuen Wan and Islands (2) 2012/15" also gained a Bronze Award of Outstanding Contractor for District Term Contract in the Award Presentation Ceremony of the Quality Public Housing Construction & Maintenance Awards 2014. The Quality Public Housing Construction & Maintenance Awards was co-organized by the Hong Kong Housing Authority and industry associations aims at encouraging continuous improvement in quality and innovation in the new works and maintenance sectors. The assessment panels' selection was based on work quality, workmanship, environmental protection, occupational safety and health, ethical integrity, partnering and customer service.

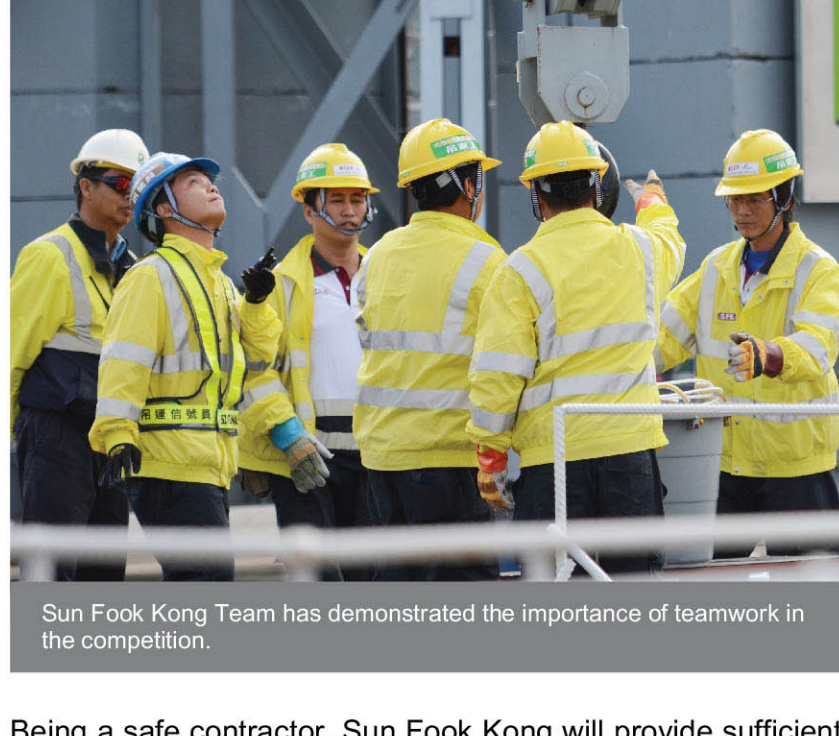

Sun Fook Kong always emphasizes on safety, environmental protection and quality. In future, the company will continue to strive for project excellence and work close with the industry to enhance building standard in Hong Kong.

Sun Fook Kong Gains Two Awards in 2014 Safe Lifting Operation Competition

Sun Fook Kong has gained two awards, including the First Runner-up of Tower Crane Lifting Operation Category and the Best Tower Crane Lifting Team Award in the 2014 Safe Lifting Operation Competition. The competition which held on 6 December 2012 was organized by the Occupational Safety and Health Council in collaboration with several co-organizers including the Labour Department, the Development Bureau, the Housing Authority and the Construction Industry Council.

Sun Fook Kong Team finally gained the Best Tower Crane Lifting Team Award in the competition.

Sun Fook Kong Team has demonstrated the importance of teamwork in the competition.

Nowadays, the lifting of objects generally occurs on construction sites. The Safe Lifting Operation Competition aims to enhance the safety awareness of the contractors and to promote importance of safe lifting operation to the general public. The organizer also hopes the competition could help to strengthen the team spirit and to improve the lifting techniques among all construction teams.

The winning of the competition relies heavily on good understanding of the assigned topics, good cooperation and sufficient safety knowledge of a team. Sun Fook Kong's team was finally awarded the First Runner-up of Tower Crane Lifting Operation Category and the Best Tower Crane Lifting Team Award for its outstanding performance in team building and application of lifting knowledge.

Being a safe contractor, Sun Fook Kong will conduct a safety assessment before lifting to ensure the machines are in good condition, as well as to improve the work efficiency.

The management of the company visited the venue in person to support the team.

Sun Fook Kong Actively Participated in the Flag Selling Activity Organized by Care for Your Heart

Nearly 80 Sun Fook Kong's volunteers participated in the flag selling activity organized by Care for Your Heart on 20 December 2014, with an aim to raise funds for the Cardiac Patients Mutual Support & Resource Centre to support its daily operation and cardiac rehabilitation and educational services.

Sun Fook Kong volunteers posed for a group photo in the flag selling activity.

The Care for Your Heart, a registered charity, was found in 1995 by a group of cardiac patients and their relatives. It provides comprehensive range of cardiac services ranging from prevention to treatment and rehabilitation. The organization also hopes to raise public awareness about heart disease through organizing different activities.

To spread a culture of caring, Sun Fook Kong actively involved in charitable activities that organized by various non-profit making organizations. In recent years, the company has gained several recognitions for its outstanding performance in corporate social responsibility, including: Caring Company 2013/2014, The Hong Kong Outstanding Corporate Citizenship Award 2014 and The Mirror Outstanding CSR 香港傑出 CSR 獎.

In future, Sun Fook Kong will continue to organize more meaningful volunteering activities and actively contribute to the community.